Herpetology Camp

This popular, weeklong nature camp has the inquisitive child in mind. Campers will explore the fascinating world of amphibians and reptiles side-by-side with herpetologist George L. Heinrich. Through up-close encounters with a variety of animals, such as gopher tortoises, frogs, lizards, and snakes, campers will learn about the ecology and conservation of amphibians and reptiles.

Wildlife Ecology Camp

This weeklong summer camp is designed for children with a strong interest in nature. Campers will explore the ecology and conservation of Florida's wildlife and wildlands with field biologist and environmental educator George L. Heinrich. A blend of classroom and field sessions will include hands-on activities, guest presentations, and exploration of the preserve's diverse habitats, where campers will practice their nature detective skills.

How to register

Print out and complete registration and liability release forms provided on the following pages. Return via U.S. Postal Service along with a check or money order made out to "George L. Heinrich" for the appropriate amount. We cannot accept cash or credit cards. Once the completed paperwork and payment have been received, we will provide a confirmation and other information via email. Please note that no reservations will be accepted and that registrations cannot be processed unless the completed paperwork and full payment have been received.

Cancellation policy

All cancellation requests must be received in writing via U.S. Postal Service or email and be postmarked at least ten days prior to the start of camp. No refunds will be made for cancellations received after that date. A $25.00 handling fee will be charged for all processed refunds.

Liability Release Form

I request George L. Heinrich allow the minor child named above to participate in summer camp activities offered at Weedon Island Preserve. It is my understanding that such activities may include hikes, field lectures, wildlife observations, and inadvertent exposure to potentially dangerous wildlife and/or vegetation, as well as other activities. I assume all risks and liabilities associated with my child's participation in such activities and agree not to bring suit against George L. Heinrich, his agents or employees, or Pinellas County, A Political Subdivision of the State of Florida, for damages arising from any injury. In the event that my child might require medical treatment for any reason while attending the program, I authorize George L. Heinrich and his agents to admit my child for treatment at the nearest licensed medical facility. I give George L. Heinrich permission to take photographs of my child while participating in the summer camp program. It is my understanding that said photographs may be used in advertising future programs.
